

How 8minuteDating works

1. Write your name and # on your Dating Card and Name sticker.
2. Please do not ask anyone for their last name, phone number, e-mail address, business card or for a date.
3. Your seating assignment card lists which tables to go to for your dates.
4. If a date does not arrive at your table, please notify the Event Organizer.
5. Write the First Name and Number (Name #) of your date in the space below (i.e. Pat 848).
6. After the Event Organizer rings the bell, discreetly check off your Card, and move on to your next date.
7. If you want to meet someone again, Login to www.8minuteDating.com and enter their 'Name #'.
8. When two people choose each other for the same category (Dating, Friendship, or Business), then we e-mail the contact information to both people.
